NOTICE
—TO—
GAS CONSUMERS.

IN compliance with a pledge made in their communication of February last, to the Hon. Mayor and Board of Aldermen, the

Memphis Gas-Light Company

have determined to reduce the price on their sales of Gas supplied on and after the

First Day of December next to the lowest rate then deemed possible, allowing a small profit on the capital invested, and pledge themselves that the price then established shall range among in other Southern and Southwestern cities.

Their apparatus, lately at great expense improved and extended, enables them to supply as pure, strong and brilliant gas light as that supplied any where in the United States.

With reference to a much threatened opposition in business, which they do not deem probable, the Company hereby give notice to their patrons and the public, that in case of an actual competition they will supply their demands at

One-Third, or Less than One-Third the Rates Established by such Competitors.

Their Works were constructed with a view of remunerating the owners for their investments, as well as for the public convenience. Notwithstanding such intention, they will sell or furnish of the price asked by any competing or opposing Company.

A Card.

WE will at once rebuild our warehouse, and will have it completed by the 15th of September, but by the first day of that month we will be ready to receive goods on store.

The sheds will be divided into fire proof compartments by brick walls, and covered with tin. Those who have patronized us for the last two seasons, and those who may be prepared to do so the approaching one, may rest assured we will be ready for them.

We design establishing a Cotton Compress in connection with our warehouse, upon an adjacent lot, which will be ready by the 1st of October or sooner. The proximity of our establishment to the river renders the handling of cotton so convenient that we can transfer cotton for shipment by river free of drayage. The advantage of the position is equal to one drayage on all cotton sent for compressment from other warehouses, while on all cotton in our warehouse for compressment there can be two drayages saved, since it would be as easy for us to transfer it from our shed to the Compress as to turn it out in the ordinary way for transfer by drays.

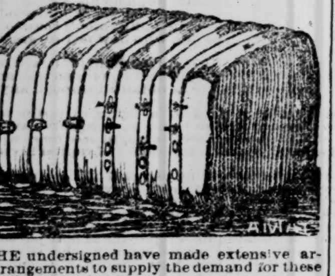
FASSMAN'S IRON TIES
—FOR—
COTTON BALES.



THE undersigned have made extensive arrangements to supply the demand for these Ties the present season.

In addition to the FASSMAN IRON TIE and BUTTON TIE, so extensively used heretofore, they now offer his ALLIGATOR TIE, with teeth so arranged as to instantly clamp the hoop when the pressure is removed from the bale, and hold it without slipping.

Great pains have been taken to secure the best quality of iron.

These Ties are so simple in their arrangement that they can be applied by any one, to bales of any size, with the same facility and expedition as rope. In strength, security and facility of application, they will compare favorably with any yet introduced.

The advantages of Iron Ties are now generally recognized; but it is deemed not out of place to call the attention of those interested to the very emphatic recommendation of Underwriters, Steamboat Captains, and Owners and Agents of Sea Steamers and Sailing Vessels, recently published in the newspapers in New Orleans.

Our Latest Improved
NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.
GROVESTEEN & CO.,
499 Broadway, N. Y.

THESE Instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep5 d&wly

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

Important Decision of Judge Miller of the U. S. Supreme Court.

The Indemnity Act of 2d of March, 1867, Declared Unconstitutional.

In the matter of the application of William Murphy for a habeas corpus, says the St. Louis Times, Judge Miller yesterday rendered the decision of the Court. The Judge observed: The prisoner is held, by virtue of an order of the President of the United States, under and in conformity with the sentence of a military commission, which assembled in the city of St. Louis in the fall of 1865, upon three charges:

The first substantially charges him with having, in 1863, conspired in the city of Mobile, Ala., with sundry persons to destroy within the Federal lines steamboats and their property.

The second with the destruction of the Champion, at Memphis, in September, 1863.

The third with the destruction of the Mepham, between Memphis and Cairo, in September, 1864.

Of the two first charges he was found guilty, and sentenced to a servitude in the Missouri penitentiary of ten years; of the third he was acquitted.

This class of questions has lately been thoroughly discussed by that court, to the decisions of which this court, whatever be the individual opinions of its members, will ever pay the greatest respect. In the case decided last winter of the habeas corpus for Milligan and others, the principles of the law relative to the trial of the citizen by a military tribunal were elaborately examined.

The present case, however, differs from that, because the offenses for which Milligan and his companions were tried had been committed in Indiana, where martial law had never prevailed, and where the courts were always open for the trial of offenders.

Here this is not the fact. The record shows that the offenses for which Murphy was tried were committed (among other places) at Mobile, where the Federal courts were then inoperative. At the time, however, they were open in New Orleans, where he was arrested, and at Memphis, where another offense for which he is charged was alleged to have been committed.

But in our view of the matter this is unimportant. For at the time of his trial, this court must take notice of the fact that in all of these places the Federal courts had resumed their functions, and in many of them the petitioner could have been tried for any of the offenses of which the Federal courts had jurisdiction.

The question then to be decided is whether the case comes within the provisions of the act of the 3d of March, 1863. The Supreme Court of the United States unanimously concurred in the opinion that by proclamation to that effect, the act of 1863 authorized the President of the United States to suspend during the then existing rebellion the writ of habeas corpus in any part of the United States.

Previously the President had exercised this power, and the contest had arisen whether Congress or the President had this right. By this act Congress intended to assert its own right, and passed this act to authorize the President to exercise a power which they thought he did not possess. But the second section of this very act limits this power and imposes conditions. It provided that while the President, in deference to the public safety, could arrest a person and not be required by a writ of habeas corpus to give the reason of the detention, yet such person was not to be detained in custody beyond a fixed period unless proceedings were instituted against him. The Secretaries of State and War were required to furnish to the Judges of the Courts of the United States a list of the names of all parties not prisoners of war, resident in their respective jurisdictions, who then were or afterwards should be held in custody by the authority of the President, and who were citizens of States where the courts were open. After this list was furnished, if the next grand jury failed to find a bill, it was the duty of the court to order his discharge.

In the construction of this act majority and minority opinions were given by the Supreme Court of the United States in the Milligan case. I quote from the opinion of the minority rendered by Chief Justice Chase:

"Indeed the act seems to have been framed on purpose to secure the trial of all offenses of citizens by civil tribunals in States where these tribunals were not interrupted in the regular exercise of their functions."

The opinion of a majority of the court goes still further, and must be binding on every member of the court, whatever be his individual opinion.

It says "the discipline necessary to the efficiency of the army and navy required other and swifter modes of trial than are furnished by the common law courts. And in pursuance of the power conferred by the Constitution, Congress has declared the periods of trial and the manner in which they shall be conducted for offenses committed while the party is in the military or naval service. Every one connected with these branches of the public service is amenable to the jurisdiction which Congress has created for their government, and while thus serving, surrenders his right to be tried by our civil courts "and all other persons," and these words are in the decision emphasized, "citizens of States where the courts are open, if charged with crimes, are guaranteed the inestimable privilege of trial by jury."

Under this construction of the act of 3d March, 1863, if it were in force at the time of the arrest and trial of the petitioner, as undoubtedly it was, then his discharge must be accorded him, for he was arrested in New Orleans in 1865, charged with offenses committed in Memphis in 1864, in which places the courts of the United States were open and perfectly competent for the trial of any offenses within their jurisdiction, and tried at St. Louis in a State where the process of the courts of the United States had never been interrupted.

His discharge must be granted, unless the point made by the District Attorney, under the act of Congress of 2d March, 1867, be valid.

That act provides "that all acts, proclamations and orders of the President of the United States, or acts done by his authority or approval, between 4th March, A. D., 1861, and 1st July, 1866, respecting martial law, military trials by court martials or military commissions, or the arrest, imprisonment and trial of persons charged with participation in the late rebellion against the United States, or as aiders and abettors thereof, or as guilty of any disloyal practice in aid thereof, or of any violation of the laws or usages of war, or of offering aid and comfort to rebels against the authority of the United States, and all proceedings and acts done or had by courts martial or military commissions, or arrests or imprisonments made in the premises by any authority, orders or proclamations of the President, made as aforesaid, or in aid thereof, are hereby approved in all respects, legalized and made valid, to the same extent and with the same effect as if said proclamations had been issued and made, and said arrests, imprisonments, proceedings and acts had been done under the previous express authority and direction of the Congress of the United States, and in pursuance of a law previously enacted and expressly authorizing and directing the same to be done; and no civil writ of the United States, or of any State, etc., shall have or take jurisdiction of or in any manner reverse any of the proceedings had, or acts done as aforesaid; nor shall any person be held to answer in any of said courts for any act done or omitted to be done, in pursuance of or in aid of any of said proclamations or orders, or by authority, or with the approval of the President, within the period aforesaid, and respecting any of the matters aforesaid; and all officers and other persons in the service of the United States, or who in aid thereof acting in the premises, shall be held prima facie to have been authorized by the President."

If this act be valid, the prisoner must be detained. It evidently intended to make two provisions, to validate the punishments of offenders, which otherwise would be illegal, and next to protect from civil process the officers and others who as subordinates of the President have striven to put down the rebellion, but whose acts have rendered them amenable to legal proceedings.

So far as the first point is involved, the law is unconstitutional, undoubtedly so. No clearer case of an ex post facto law could be framed—its effect is to hold in confinement men for offenses not punishable by any law at the time of their commission, and to detain them in a servitude imposed by a court which had no jurisdiction to try them.

I had the honor of presenting the minority view in the cases decided last winter and usually known as the test oath cases. In that opinion I entered into the exposition of the characteristics of an ex post facto law, and though intending to limit those of the majority, yet if any one will take the trouble to examine that decision they would find that even under my view of such a law, this act, as far as its punishments are concerned, is clearly ex post facto.

All laws which decree the punishment of an act not punishable at the time of its commission are ex post facto.

This prisoner, up to the time of this law, was certainly illegally imprisoned under the sentence of a military tribunal, because tried before a court which had no jurisdiction of his person or of his offense.

If remanded under this act, it is under an act passed subsequent to his offense, and even to his conviction. Can anything then, be more clearly ex post facto? It is the duty of the court, then, to declare it unconstitutional. However unpleasant it is thus to declare the unconstitutionality of an act of Congress, yet justice requires it of us, and we must not refrain from our duty. We are of the opinion, then, that this petitioner is entitled to his discharge, and this act of Congress cannot be invoked to prevent it.

But while thus passing on the invalidity of a part of that law, I deem it my duty, speaking only on behalf of myself and not for any other member of the court, in order to prevent misapprehension and consequent mischief, to declare that it is not necessary for the decision of the present case to pass upon the validity of that part of the act of Congress which gives immunity to the officers of the Government. To that portion the views expressed of the unconstitutionality of the act has no application, and I am not called upon to pass upon it, though my own impression is, that so far as it relates to civil rights and a mere protection against civil suits, Congress has a right to protect the officers of the Government by the exercise, as in this instance, of all of its power.

The prisoner, then, will be discharged from the custody of the Warden of the penitentiary. But inasmuch as the finding of the military court must be by this court regarded as prima facie evidence of his guilt of the grave offenses of which he is charged, we will reserve the judgment until to-morrow to enable the District Attorney to examine whether he should be remanded to the custody of an officer to be sent to Tennessee or Louisiana for trial.

ON THE RUBICON—IMPORTANT MANIFESTO OF MR. CHASE.

[From the New York Herald, 22d.]

The crisis approaches which is to determine the Presidential succession. Indeed, it may be said that the issue has already been reduced to the crossing of the Rubicon. The standard of Gen. Grant has been advanced to the bank of the river, while from the opposite side comes the warning voice of Mr. Chase, like that of the Roman Senate to Cæsar, that our great soldier must advance no further—that it will be war if he shall presume to enter the sacred district and to defy the governing politicians of the capital. This manifesto from Mr. Chase, for the information of all concerned, we publish this morning. It is a direct challenge which brings home to the friends of Gen. Grant the momentous question: Shall we bear him across the forbidden stream and "fight it out on this line?"

In this manifesto it will be seen that Mr. Chase pleads not guilty to the verdict of the late Ohio election. It was not his work. Oh, no! He is not touched and does not intend to be influenced by it! He intends to try his cause in the Republican National Convention. He has confidence in the powerful inside machinery which has been for seven long years contriving and getting into working order. He believes negro suffrage necessary in the South, but for the present, at least, he would ignore it in the North. We know, however, what all this means—that Mr. Chase is, in fact, the champion of universal negro suffrage and of the universal paper money monopoly of his national banks. We know, too, that the managing Radicals of the Republican camp are determined and obstinate in the prosecution of their designs; that they are devoted to Chase and are afraid of Grant; that they are unscrupulous as to the means employed to gain their ends, and that they have control of the machinery. It is, therefore, quite likely that they may secure the control of the Republican nominating convention.

We are inclined to believe, in the next place, that should Chase be thus nominated, Grant will decline to run; that he will only consent to run as a harmonizing candidate, or as the spontaneous and undisputed nomination of the Republican party. Assuming, from these views, that Chase will become the Republican candidate, what course will the managers of the Democratic party pursue?

M. THIERS, who is passing the vacation a few leagues from Paris, is stated to be preparing two great speeches—one political, on the general state of Europe, and the other treating of the financial condition of the country in its entirety, the consequence of the exaggerated extension of all constructions of an ornamental character, and the precipitate prosecution of so many undertakings.

THE city expenses of New Orleans are about three millions and a half per annum.

[WESTERN ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.]

ROME, October 28.—The Pope, in a letter to the Catholic Bishops throughout the world, says that the patrimony of the Church has been assailed by revolutionists, and asks them to order prayers in all the Churches for the Holy See.

The police on Friday in searching a house, met with resistance, when they attacked the house with bayonets, killed fifteen Garibaldians and took thirty six prisoners. A quantity of arms and bombs were also captured. There has been fighting to-day half a mile from the city, and great excitement prevails within the walls. The revolutionists are making preparations for a second uprising.

A proclamation has been issued to prohibit the assemblage of over four persons together at the same time. All persons are to retire within their houses and shops to be closed when the signal of alarm is given.

News has been received here that 1000 Garibaldians attacked Viterbo yesterday, setting fire to one of the gates. They were repulsed with a heavy loss in general material. It is reported that their leader was the Deputy of Ocerbia, and that he was killed.

The citizens of Rome, including many of the aristocracy, are armed, and patrol the streets during the night.

FLORENCE, October 28.—News has been received here that a desperate battle was fought near Monterondedo on Friday. Garibaldi won the victory. With two battalions he put to flight and pursued the Papal forces, capturing one hundred prisoners and three guns. Many men were killed and wounded on both sides.

Gen. Cialdini has been unable to complete the formation of the new ministry, and has abandoned the effort. Both Ratazzi and Gen. Durando are trying to reconstruct the Cabinet.

TURIN, October 28.—There was a great popular demonstration in this city on Saturday in favor of making Rome the capital of the nation, and an address to the King of Italy to that effect was adopted.

FLORENCE, October 28.—Two battles have been fought by the volunteers under Garibaldi. The first took place at Monterondedo; the second was fought farther south, at Torreta. In both of these engagements, which were of a most desperate character, the invaders were victorious. Gen. Garibaldi has now arrived before Rome, with 10,000 men under him.

The young men of Italy are swarming over the Papal frontiers to join Garibaldi. There is a report that Garibaldi received a check at Monterondedo from the Papal troops, who were suddenly reinforced.

PARIS, October 28.—The Moniteur to-day says that the fleet at Toulon had been kept back at the request of the King of Italy, but has now sailed for the Italian coast, because no cabinet has been formed at Florence, and because Garibaldi is menacing the city of Rome.

This action of France is declared not aggressive. Both Italy and France are interested in the preservation of order and the preservation of the law. The Moniteur hopes that the entente cordiale between the two nations will not be disturbed.

A banquet was given yesterday by the foreign members of the Imperial Commission of the Exposition Universal to the French members. M. Rouher, Minister of Foreign Affairs was present, and made an important and significant speech. He alluded directly to the present crisis in the Italian peninsula, and he hoped Italy would not, under the influence of passion, be led to engage in war with France, but that she would emerge from this great national trial purified and a friend of order.

Garibaldi's forces are said to be from 10,000 to 20,000 strong. All the Papal troops have been concentrated, with orders to act on the defensive.

The troops that sailed from Toulon will reach Civita Vecchia this afternoon.

FLORENCE, October 28, p.m.—The soldiers of Victor Emmanuel refuse to fight against Garibaldi.

The cause of national unity in the King's council is gaining ground. It is now considered certain that a thoroughly radical ministry will be formed, whose policy will be devoted to making Rome the capital of Italy.

PARIS, October 28—Evening.—The wildest rumors in regard to Italy are circulating here. It is reported that the Italian Crown Prince has put himself at the head of an army to resist the French. Another rumor says King Victor Emmanuel will relinquish his crown.

LIBERAL ADVANCES—Supplies at Wholesale Prices. Commission for selling Cotton, One Dollar per Bale.

To the Cotton Planters of West Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas:

The undersigned respectfully tenders his services as agent for the sale of your cotton in this city, and for the purchase of your supplies. The unfortunate termination of the late war, which so materially affected the best interests of the South, has also had its effect upon the Commission Business of this city, as transacted between planter and merchant. You doubtless well remember with what pertinacity (previous to the war), amounting in some instances to annoyance, you were solicited for your business at the rate of fifty cents per bale commission, free of drayage, and stored for twelve months without charge. Then (as will be again) the producer was the ruling element, and high rents, rich landlords and merchants were the result of planters' patronage. No people or occupation have been more seriously prostrated than planters and planting, and none so much deserve to be fostered and aided in their unfortunate changed condition. How that aid so much needed has been meted out you I opine too well know. Onerous government taxes in general, and a special tax upon your leading production, Cotton, large profits you have had to pay upon supplies furnished, commissions on sales ranging from $3 50 to $5 per bale, monthly storage at exorbitant prices, and other expenses, as per reference to your account sales, as a sum total will leave you but little if anything upon which to rebuild your shattered fortunes, or to compete with the new order of affairs—free labor. When I withdrew from the Cotton and Commission Business in 1860, private reasons then led me to believe that I would never engage in it again. The solicitations of many friends that were former patrons, and a desire to promote the interest of the planting community, so far as my feeble efforts can do so, and the apparent want of gratitude exhibited to a community that in times past tended so materially to the prosperity of Memphis and its mercantile community, has determined me again to offer my services in the capacity as stated. The reduced stocks of cottons in the United States and short supplies in the hands of New England manufacturers has caused some advance in prices from the late depression, hence early sales may be prudent and remunerative; such was the case the past two seasons, and many planters have had cause to regret the acting upon the too common practice of holding and drawing upon their cottons. I would advise no planter to send forward his cotton unless he wished it sold upon the first active market. It can be held at home much cheaper than in Memphis. My charges for selling cotton will be One Dollar per bale. Insurance effected in all cases if not instructed to the contrary. Shall buy your supplies from wholesale houses, giving you the benefit of same. In short, by strict attention to all the departments of our business, I hope to merit a large share of patronage.

Very respectfully,
se4 R. A. MOON.

EXPLANATION:

ON the first day of April last, we sold to H. A. Montgomery most of our stock of goods, and by this sale disposed of all our high priced goods; but not for a moment have we ever given up business. We have always held possession and occupied our present store, 294 Main street, in Clark's Marble Block. Mr. Montgomery sold the stock purchased of us to Col. Sam. P. Walker, who turned over the goods to Gen. Frank P. Armstrong, as trustee, and by an arrangement made with Mr. Montgomery, we permitted the goods to be sold in our store for sixty days or more. We have never made an assignment, nor do we expect to do so. We want to be placed right on the record, and want our friends to understand our position. We are going to continue business, and expect to always keep a superior stock, and at fair prices. Thus we were forced to sell our large stock of high-priced goods, in order to meet them with an entirely new, cheap and elegant stock, which we are now receiving daily.

SECOND DRAWING
—OF THE—
Southern Asylum
LAND COMPANY,
TO TAKE PLACE AT HERNANDO, MISS.,
AUGUST, 1867.

THE First Drawing, which took place at Hernando, Miss., on the 15th inst., was attended with unusual success, when it is remembered that but a few weeks elapsed from the inception of the enterprise to that event. $17,000 worth of tickets having been sold, a like amount of property was drawn for, under the supervision of gentlemen selected by the ticket holders present. The utmost harmony and good feeling pervaded those present, and, as will be seen from the subjoined certificate of the Managers, the affair was conducted to a close in a most gratifying and satisfactory manner:

HERNANDO, MISS., June 15, 1867.

We hereby certify that the above report of the First Drawing of the Southern Asylum is correct, and that the proceedings were characterized by a spirit of fairness and justness unsurpassed by any Drawing of which we have any knowledge. The Managers of the Company placed the tickets and wheels under our sole management and control.

J. B. MORGAN,
ROBERT TEMPLE,
V. A. MERRIWETHER,
W. W. CAMPTON,
M. MAGEVENY,

KAVANAGH & DECKER'S
BILLIARD TABLES

THE most reliable Cushion used on Billiard Tables is the

CAT-GUT CUSHION,

Manufactured by KAVANAGH & DECKER, and Patented Dec. 18, 1866. (See Scientific American, Vol. 16, No. 11.)

It is the only Cushion that possesses all the qualities essential to a Perfect Cushion. It is the most elastic and most durable Cushion ever offered to the billiard-playing public, as is abundantly proven by the great demand for it since its introduction. The peculiarity which distinguishes the Cat-Gut Cushion and renders it superior to all others, is the tightened cord of cat-gut which overlies the face and edge of the rubber and running the full length of the Cushion, which prevents the ball from bedding into the rubber and jumping from the table. The addition of the cat-gut cord also adds much to the elasticity of the Cushion.

The Cat-Gut Cushion has already been applied to over 1000 tables, which are in constant use. It can be applied to tables of any make for $75 per set.

Kavanagh & Decker's Factory, at the corner of Centre and Canal streets, N. Y., is the most complete of its kind in the world. The machinery is of the most improved character, the lumber drying room the largest in the United States, the material used the best that can be purchased, and the workmen thoroughly skilled.

Billiard Cloth, Balls, Cues and Trimmings, all of the best make, constantly on hand.

Kavanagh & Decker are the only agents in this country for Kay's Cue Cement, adjudged by competent authorities to be the best Cement ever used.

THE DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.

NO material which has ever been discovered has effected greater benefits in the household economy than

McGIMSEY'S MAGIC SOAP.

It is a labor saving invention, as well as an invaluable remedy in Scurvy, Scald Head, Eruptions of the skin and Piles. Dandruff is removed from the head, the Teeth whitened and cleansed, Plate and Jewelry cleaned, Stains effectually removed from Carpets, Furniture, Clothes, Paint, Varnish or Marble, with the greatest facility and without injury to the material. It is a great saving of time and labor in washing clothes. It is the only known Soap which will wash Flannels with the ease of cotton or linen without fulling or shrinking. All these important objects can be effected without injury to the skin or the most delicate fabrics. It possesses no deleterious qualities whatever. The world is challenged to produce a soap which possesses so many valuable properties and which is so innocuous and safe. It is a home invention, and defies competition in any part of the world. It has become a necessity in Memphis, and its use is rapidly spreading throughout the South, and eventually will extend over the Yankee States, North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Oceanica. Manufactured solely by C. P. McGimsey, Memphis, Tenn., and sold at the following places in the city at wholesale and retail: Page & Co.'s, Dean's, Taylor's Drug Store, Poplar street; King's, corner of Third and Adams; Oliver & Co.'s DeSoto Block, Madison street; will soon be found at any respectable family grocery or drug store. The proprietor is determined that its manufacture shall keep pace with the rapidly extending demand for its use. au18

DEVILTRY.

We take the following figures and fact from the National Intelligencer of the 25th of September. It is part of the history of the infernal conspiracy by which the Radical leaders, foreseeing their approaching defeat in the Northern States, (as we know they did), sought for the means of maintaining themselves in power at all hazards for four years longer, by securing the votes of the ten unreconstructed States and Tennessee. In four years more, the pockets of the present leaders, their friends, dependents, mercenaries and pimps will be filled, and they can then retire gracefully to private life. We are not in the habit of talking at random, or vituperating without cause, and as we are not the chattel or thrall of any party, man or passion, we can speak the cold, calm words of the simple truth. The object of most of the principal leaders of Radicalism has always been MONEY; and where they were honest, as some of them were, they have been compelled to connive at the plunderings of their dependents, the condottieri of their faction, to whom they owed, and through whom they retained, place, influence and power. One half of the public debt is chargeable to this wide-spread system of plundering the public. The legitimate expenses of the war and Government have not amounted to one half the debt. The purchase by STANTON of a vessel worth not more than $60,000, for $450,000, went somewhat beyond the ordinary measure of rascality; but is only a fair specimen of the mode in which the Treasury was robbed. The imposition of a tax of two dollars a gallon on whiskey, after the purpose to do it had been made known to the favoured few who composed the inner ring of Radical rascality, so that they might buy up the whiskey in market at current prices, to the amount of millions, and realize by its subsequent sale, at the price borne by that which paid the excise duty, was another specimen of the prostitution of legislation to purposes of private profit.

Power was thus made too profitable to the possessors of it, to be given up without an effort to retain it. We are not talking loosely when we say that the leaders long ago knew that their lease of power would be brief if they could not secure the Southern States. They had no hatred against the South. The war had been too profitable to them, for that. They owed to it all they had and all they were. They applied the question, torture, the rack, the thumbscrew and the iron-boot to the South, on a cold-blooded, selfish and atrocious calculation, to hurry it, by the double incentive of fear and selfishness, into such a reconstruction as should secure them its Congressional and electoral votes. To secure these, they determined in their cabals to force negro-suffrage upon it; and by the bribe of fear, pardon and the prospect of official dishonours they purchased the consent and assistance of too many of those to whose unwisdom in former years the misfortunes of the South were owing. Their calculation was that by means of the various appliances used, they could win the vote of the Southern States, if they lost those of the great States of the North, some of which, (Ohio, for example), they did not doubt they would retain. It was a desperate game, and they have played it desperately. They bought some Southern men in one way and some in another,—these being for the most part entirely unconscious that they had become the mere chattels and tools of these unscrupulous conspirators. Some, who, once proscribed Whigs, still hated the proscriptive Democracy, (like the Governor of Tennessee,) they did not need to buy. Their passions and old animosities secured these without other price. Flattery and the hope of preferment secured others; and in other cases the simple and confiding honesty of brave soldiers made them the easy dupes of the political sharpers who farmed the revenues and emoluments of the Government.

GRANT or SHERIDAN as a candidate for the Presidency, and the sure votes of the Southern States are indispensable to Radical success in November, 1868. It has therefore been a necessity to radicalize the South. Tennessee is subsidized, if the disfranchisement of eighty thousand of her white citizens can be continued, and the negro vote can be secured by giving them the right to hold office. There needs no other explanation of the state of affairs here.

As to the other and unreconstructed States, the National Intelligencer well said, on the 25th of September, that the artful machinery by which they were to be put under negro domination, so as to eke out Radical strength at the North, had reached a point where one could begin to compute results. It said:

> Louisiana, under the auspices of Gen. Sheridan and the clique of bad men by whom he was surrounded, and to whose passions he ministered, was the first to complete this initial step of "reconstruction," so called. The official result is: whites, 44,732; blacks, 82,907—being a negro majority of 38,175. . . . . .
> In Alabama the official result was also quickly reached by the pious zeal of Gen. Pope. The total is 160,995—whites, 72,747; blacks, 88,248—being a majority for the negroes of 15,501.
> In South Carolina the official figures give 46,019 negroes to 21,176 whites, being a negro majority of 24,843.
> In Virginia the official figures are—whites, 115,157; blacks, 101,490, being a white majority of 13,667. Gen. Schofield has ordered an election to be held on the 22d October for members of a convention.
> In Georgia the registration has just been completed, and the result is officially announced as follows: Total, 188,720; whites, 95,503; blacks, 93,417. Majority for the former, 2,086.
> These five States are complete. In Louisiana, Alabama and South Carolina the negro majority is overwhelming, and the schemes of the authors of these reconstruction measures bid fair to be accomplished. In Virginia the whites have a majority, and may carry the State; but there, as well as all over the South, the negroes are banded together by oath-bound secret Radical leagues, and it has been supposed their vote would be cast as a unit. In such case, seven thousand whites, or one in every sixteen of the whites voting the Radical ticket, would turn over that State to the coalition resting chiefly on African support. In Georgia there is also a white majority of two thousand; but with the negroes in secret leagues, voting as a body, a very small number of bad white men are enough to turn the scale, and put the State virtually under negro government.
> In North Carolina the results as far as reached are 41,703 whites, blacks 39,795, making a small majority for the former. With a fair registration, we might count at least on 30,000 white majority in this State; but if it is to be worked as has been usual in the South, this is not to be hoped for.
> Florida, as far as heard from gives 6078 colored, and 2583 whites, and this ratio (more than two to one) will probably be maintained.
> In Mississippi the registration is said to be nearly complete, and to foot up whites 46,636, blacks, 60,167; and, judging from the actual population, this looks more like an honest registration than any other State in the South. The black majority is 13,531.
> In Texas and Arkansas the registration has also been going on. We have no figures from either, but we understand that in the former State, where the white population is over two to one, a negro preponderance on the registration has been arrived at of even a greater ratio.
> Such is the prospect before us—a black rule, and ascendency from the Potomac to the Rio Grande, over a country rich in resources, the abode of five or six millions of whites, who might become prosperous and happy if it were not essential to make their land a prey to anarchy worse than Jamaica or Hayti, in order to compass continued ascendency for the Radical faction.

The mode in which hese tresults have been obtained is the problem whose solution will throw most light on the purposes and morals of the Radical leaders who farm the revenues and sequester the offices of the country. We need not now speak of the disfranchisements created by the reconstruction enactments, for the special and sole purpose of securing Radical majorities. These are not only unconstitutional but villainous. To take from a man a franchise, unless he will swear that he has not committed an offence of which he has not been convicted, is quite as villainous a mode of getting at the truth, or at falsehood instead of the truth, as the use of the rack, and stamps in the estimation of all decent men, those who resort to it, as very base and unworthy persons, devoid of the common instincts of honour.

We say nothing of these flagitii atque dedecora, because they were very far from being sufficient to attain the results indispensable to secure the South to Radicalism. There were but two Southern States in which the blacks had a majority before the war. These were Mississippi and South Carolina. The Intelligencer says:

> In the latter the blacks were 412,320 to 291,300 whites, or about four to three. Now the registration shows 46,019 negro voters and 21,176 whites—a proportion of more than two to one! All accounts, even from Republican sources, represent the negro population there as having decreased; but if we are to accept this registration as a guide, the white male voting population has diminished from about 45,000 to 21,176! Shall we accept this astonishing result as a fact, or rather must we not believe that these lists have been packed for a purpose—white men rejected and negroes registered in their places?
> In Mississippi the State authorities last year took a census. The blacks were 381,258, and the whites 343,460. This shows a loss since 1860 of 10,439 whites and 56,146 blacks—some of the last doubtless from deaths in camps or battle, but mainly by emigration to the Northwest or to Texas. Comparing the recent registration with this census, we believe that it has been rather more honestly conducted than in other localities, though not free from suspicion.
> These two are the only States in which the blacks had a majority in 1860, or, as we believe, have now a majority. In Florida they were outnumbered by 77,747 to 62,637, but, by the miraculous agencies of the "registration," they overcome this disparity, and are more than two to one. In Georgia the census of 1860 showed 591,550 whites to 465,698 blacks—a white majority of over 125,000. Now the blacks, rallying under the ægis of Gen. Pope, very nearly equal the white voters. In Alabama, where, before the war, there was a white majority of 88,501, the blacks have a majority of 15,501 voters! Their vote is 88,248, and the customary proportion in the South is six and a half of population to one voter. At this rate we should have 573,000 blacks—an increase of only 135,000 over their number in 1860. But, as the ratio in Alabama was only about six to one, we adopt that rule, and have, as a result, 529,486—an increase of over 91,000 negroes in seven years, or over twenty per cent.
> In Texas the census of 1860 stood 420,891 whites, to 183,021 negroes, considerably over two to one. Now, we are informed, the registration lists reverse the operation, the blacks being two or three to one. Are we expected to believe this all fair and honest?
> Look, however, at Louisiana, where Gen. Banks, if we remember aright, reported officially that the negroes had decreased one-fourth. Before the war a white population of 351,556 cast 50,510 votes, or one to every seven persons. Now, we have only 44,732 whites on the lists. The black vote is 82,907. If we take the same ratio of seven to one we have a black population of 580,349. If we take six and a half to one, the usual ratio in other States, we have 538,895 as the present black population. In 1860 they had 345,273—a negro increase in seven years of over 193,000, or fully fifty-five per cent., though, according to Gen. Banks, the race had fallen off one fourth. Does the Radical "reconstruction" bring dead negroes to life again, or does it not duplicate the living? We are confident this result could not have been secured even by registering the negroes from eighteen to twenty-one years of age, as has been liberally done all over the South.
> One more State remains to be considered—Virginia—where the whites have on the registration 115,157; to 101,490 blacks, or a majority of 13,667. In 1860 the black population in the whole State was 548,907. Since then West Virginia has been cut off, and of course a portion of the black population. But taking the ratio of six-and-a-quarter to one (the same ratio borne in 1860 by the voting whites to the whole white population) and we have now, according to this registration, a negro population of 634,312, or an increase in seven years of 85,305 over the number comprised in the whole State as it stood in 1860! In view of the known deaths, the number in West Virginia, the emigration to this city and to the North, does any sane man believe that there has been this increase? The test would be decisive as to the mode in which the registration has been conducted; but we have yet another test, which is even more conclusive. The Auditor of the State, in computing the taxes, has to take account of the population. This was done last year, and the result showed a very large decrease of the negro population. The whites had sustained considerable losses in the war, but these had been made up by the natural increment, and on the whole there was a slight increase of those over twenty-one years of age. The Virginia papers were able to announce, as they did with some exultation, that there was a white majority of fifty thousand males over twenty-one years of age. They regarded themselves as entirely safe; but they did not fully know the agencies they would have to combat. It had been determined in caucus here, that a certain result was to be worked out, and behold the consummation: Instead of fifty thousand, less than fourteen thousand white majority.

We, here in Memphis, who saw some seven thousand negro voters registered a few months ago, and who know the manner in which that deviltry was managed, are not surprised at the results of the workings of the same infernal system everywhere in the South. The object to be accomplished was everywhere the same: and the most extraordinary fact in respect to it, here, has been, that those men in Tennessee who obtained office by means so disreputable and indecent, so destructive of genuine republicanism, have not even had the grace to be ashamed of it, and be silent, but have exulted loudly over their success, as if it were honorable and a matter whereof to be proud.

It was for the people of Ohio, and Pennsylvania, it is yet for the people of other Northern States, to say in their elections, whether they meant to be responsible for these stupendous frauds and the cruelties so inflicted on the people of the South. The States that have already voted have understood that the fraud is not only on the rights of Southern white men, but on their own rights in the choice of President and the legislature of the country. That was and yet is the great issue; and from that issue Radicalism cannot escape.

THE COURTS DARE TO PROTECT THE CONSTITUTION.

"Whenever any government, in a country heretofore free, exceeds the proper boundaries of law, it becomes the most intolerable of all tyrannies. Necessarily suspicious and revengeful, it confers no safety and admits of no repose: it augments its vigors if ineffectually resisted, or its caprice if implicitly obeyed."

So the author of "a History of Scotland," says, and the truth of the remark has never been more strikingly exemplified than in the United States. Of all the "caprices of tyranny" which have made men detestable, more have excelled, and few have equalled, in contemptuous disregard of reason and justice, the act of Congress of the 2d of March, 1867, by which the men who are governing the country outside of the Constitution, undertook to "legalize and make valid" all proceedings and acts done by military commissions previous to the 1st of July, 1866, and prohibited the reversal of such proceedings by the courts of the United States, or of a State. If one had not the infamous enactment before his eyes, it would be difficult to believe that any set of rational men could, or even any autocrat in the nineteenth century, have dared to pass such a law.

We publish elsewhere the decision of Mr. Justice MILLER, of the Supreme Court of the United States, made in the Circuit Court of the United States at Saint Louis, in the case of MURPHY, tried by a Military Commission at St. Louis in the autumn of 1865.

The reader will not fail to notice the direct and plain words in which the Court declared the act of which we have spoken to be unconstitutional. The well known Radical sympathies of the Judge (who was appointed by President LINCOLN) give double weight to this decision, and make more striking the condemnation of Congress which they pronounce. He declares that "no clearer case of an ex post facto law could be framed;" which is in effect to declare that Congress must have known it to be so when they enacted it. They did know it; they could not but know it; they are not fools or utterly ignorant of the meaning of the Constitution; and they deliberately and willfully committed perjury, by violating that Constitution which they had sworn to support, and which expressly forbids the passage of an ex post facto law. What is the worth or use of such an oath, if it is not a crime to violate it knowingly and intentionally? and why does not this perjury deserve to be punished, like any other, by imprisonment in a penitentiary and disqualification to testify in Court?

Mr. Justice MILLER also decides that under the Act of March 3d, 1863, citizens of States in which the Courts were open could not lawfully be tried by Military Commissions, but were entitled to "the inestimable privilege of a trial by jury." That privilege would have been inestimable to Mrs. SURRATT, in whose case the Writ of Habeas Corpus fell stricken with paralysis by the mandate of power that feared to incur the popular anger. Now, the Judiciary of the United States pronounces that she was unlawfully executed. It therefore pronounces, also, that MUDD and his companions and Col. ST. LEGER GRENFELL, on the Dry Tortugas, and BRAINE in Fort Lafayette, are unlawfully imprisoned. Why is their imprisonment continued, since STANTON is no longer Secretary of War?

The Courts of the United States are held in the unreconstructed Southern States. These are not only included in Federal Circuits, but cases that have gone up from them have been heard by the Supreme Court; which could not have been done if they had not been States of the Union. When Mississippi and Georgia filed their bills in the same Court, to enjoin the execution of the reconstruction acts, the Court did not hold that they were not States, which was the very first question in each case, and without deciding which the Court could not take a step in either.

Yet citizens are daily tried in these States by Military Commissions, and some are sentenced to imprisonment on the Dry Tortugas. Why does the President permit it. How many judicial decisions does he propose to wait for, before he obeys his oath to support, preserve and defend the Constitution. Long ago the Supreme Court decided, all the Judges concurring, that Congress could not possess any powers, anywhere, except under the Constitution, and COULD NOT establish despotisms even over conquered country. Why does he not enforce this decision? Will it be any more unconstitutional if Congress deposes him by resolution, or suspends him during his trial on articles of impeachment? Does he not dare to protect and preserve the Constitution? Is he afraid he will fail and fall in the attempt? Better, infinitely better fail and fall and even lose his head, than not dare to do what his duty demands, and to break the oath he has sworn. Even GEN. THOMAS, not long since, proposed to try a citizen of Tennessee, by a Military Commission, for a pretended offence committed on the 1st of August, 1867. Does the President imagine he can win any honour by conniving at such acts of usurpation? He should remember that History may condemn the bold usurper who succeeds; but when one fails for want of boldness she pities him.

AT the close of the two days' election in Richmond, on Wednesday night, the whites were in a majority. Gen. Schofield ordered the polls to be kept open in three wards on Thursday, and the negroes speedily overbalanced the white preponderance. At about noon two of the wards were closed, and the negroes massed at the third, where the voting was kept up through a great part of the night. Only twenty-two negroes voted the Conservative ticket, and but thirty-seven white men the Radical ticket.—Cincinnati Commercial.

This was the mode of HUNNICUTT's election. After the second day's voting he was beaten. On the third day three negro wards were kept open, and in the afternoon only one, at which the negroes massed. This is the military style of carrying elections. It is all done by strategy. The General, who in battle can mass more troops on a given point is generally successful, and will invariably be so, when you give him command of both lines. This seems to have been SCHOFIELD'S fortunate position, and most unscrupulously has he availed himself of it.

REPRESENTATIVE MASON wants loyalty not only "increased," but "protected" after the most approved iron-clad style—so he puts in a bill inflicting a penalty on all persons selling or harboring photographs of ex-President Davis and Gen. Lee.

THE New Orleans Picayune says: "The packet Magenta, Capt. T. P. Leathers, arrived Saturday afternoon from Vicksburg, with 1780 bales of cotton on board, which is the largest load that has arrived this season."

THE National Intelligencer says Messrs. Johnson, Cushing and James, the Commissioners appointed to codify the laws of the United States, have nearly completed their work, and will make a report to Congress at the beginning of the session. The patent and military laws have been greatly reduced and simplified.

THE municipal election in Baltimore took place on the 23d inst. The entire Democratic ticket for Mayor, both branches of the City Council and Judges were elected. The vote for Mayor was: Robert Banks, Democrat, 18,380; Andrew H. Dennison, Republican, 4831. Banks' majority, 13,558.

THE election in West Virginia for State Senators and Representatives took place on Thursday. The returns are meager, and indicate a diminished vote. The Democrats have made large gains, as far as heard from. Wheeling and Ohio counties give seven hundred Democratic majority. Brooks county also elects the entire Democratic ticket. Wood, Marshall, Wirt and Berkeley counties, and, probably, Harrison county, have gone Republican.

The Herald's Richmond special says Gen. Schofield has replied to the protest of Mr. Gilmer to the effect that Col. Ross will be court martialed when Mr Gilmer's specification to the charges are presented. The question of the legality of the election will be left to the Convention. It is rumored that the solution of Gen. Schofield's action in the late election is to be found in the fact that he is a candidate for United States Senator from Virginia.

Several more citizens have been ordered to leave Richmond by negro vigilance committees for speaking disrespectfully of Hunnicutt and his party. Armed negroes are kept in front of Hunnicutt's office, and prevent any one from passing on the side walk.

FOREIGN.

FLORENCE, October 29.—Particulars are received of an engagement at Monterondo. They represent the fighting as obstinate on both sides. At one time the issue seemed doubtful, but at the end of the conflict Garibaldi, who led in person, was completely successful. He immediately followed up his victory, and the defeated soldiers of the Pope fell back on Rome. At last accounts Garibaldi, with all his army, estimated at 10,000 to 12 000 men, had advanced to the outer fortifications of the Holy City, advices from which say great agitation exists. An attack is hourly expected from the victorious Garibaldians. The Pope had retired from the Vatican and sought refuge within the Castle of St. Angelo.

LATER—Gen. Menabra has succeeded in forming a new cabinet.

The royal proclamation issued by King Victor Emanuel, denouncing Garibaldi and declaring the policy of France, meets the approval of the State Government.

ALABAMA ITEMS.

—We learn, says the Huntsville Democrat, that one night this week, a Mrs. Glazier, wife of J. R. Glazier, was shot while sitting in her house, about six miles from Guntersville, nineteen buckshot entering her body, killing her instantly. A man living near, named Neighbors, was arrested on suspicion and is in custody awaiting a legal investigation. A son of Mrs. Glazier was also wounded severely. A son-in-law, who was in the house, shot at the murderer, who dropped his double barreled shot gun and ran. It is said that the murderer can be identified by the gun and recognition of his features by the light from the flash of the gun. 'Tis said, Mrs. Glazier was a witness against Neighbors on a criminal charge.

—The Huntsville Independent learns that a few days since an unnatural and brutal mother (negro) was caught in the act of burying her new-born child. It was partially covered with dirt and grass when found, and living. She was made to take it, though reluctantly, and keep it. She was unmarried, and received the attention of a colored preacher. It is supposed she did this to conceal the child's birth from him.

OBITUARY.

STOUT—Died, at his residence in this city, on the evening of October 5th, Mr. NATHANIEL H. STOUT, in the 63d year of his age.

Of remarkably regular and temperate habits, he enjoyed unusual health previous to his fatal sickness, not having the attendance of a physician for thirty years

Mr. STOUT was one of the old merchants of Memphis, having been engaged in business since 1852, in this city. His life was mainly devoted to mercantile pursuits, and he had the satisfaction of knowing that, by strict care and attention to business, and a course of integrity and probity in all his transactions with his fellow man, he was enabled to leave his family in the possession of a comfortable property.

As a man, Mr. STOUT was just and upright; as a husband and father, kind and affectionate; and as a friend, generous and obliging. He was a peaceable and quiet citizen, and unassuming in his manners. But he is gone; his life is over, his labor ended. The unrelenting hand of Death was laid upon him, and he is no more. "The golden bowl is broken, the silver cord is loosed," and "he is gathered to his fathers." Sorrow and grief fill the hearts of a large circle of friends and relatives, but let us not forget that our loss is his eternal gain. Let us emulate the virtues that shone conspicuously in his character—

"And when our summons comes, to join
The innumerable caravan that moves
To the pale realms of shade,
Sustained and soothed by an unfaltering trust,
We can approach our grave
Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch
About him, and lies down to pleasant dreams."

DIED.

PAYNTER—Died, of brain fever, on the 24th September, 1867, ARTHUR, son of H. H. and Mary Paynter, aged eight years, at their residence, Tiptonsville, Tenn.

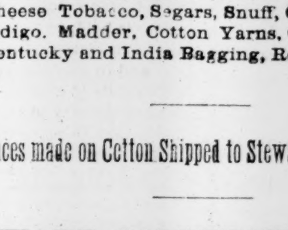
FINLEY'S CHURN DASHER.

GOT ONE OF THEM YET? GOT ONE OF WHAT, SIR?



WHY, ONE OF THE "FINLEY CHURN DASHERS."

WHY DO YOU ASK ME THAT QUESTION, SIR?

Because one of them is needed, no doubt, and that badly, among your household conveniences, that the laborious and troublesome item of churning may become an agreeable recreation to the ladies, upon whom such duties usually devolve.

What's the article? What's the description? What's it do, pray, Sir?

Well, it is simply two screw-propeller wheels attached to the lower end of a staff or handle which is placed in the "old fashioned" wooden or tub churn, and worked in the same manner precisely as the "old Dasher"—these two wheels revolve rapidly and in counter directions at every up and down movement of the "Dasher," completely disengaging and cutting the cream into the minutest particles; while at the same time by aid of the "air beds" in each division of the wheels, keeps the whole bulk of the cream supplied with constant currents of fresh air, thus securing by the simplest process the true principles of "Good Butter Making."

Well, sir, is the thing simple---very simple?

Why, so very simple when seen that not a word of explanation is necessary. Why "Biddy," "Aunt Dinah," or the eight year old child can both understand and use it, and couldn't for their lives imagine any other purpose for it.

Is it durable and substantial, sir?

It is made of the best Sheet Zinc—will not rust—strong—neat, and with ordinary care, will last as long as you and your grand-children's children.

Long enough; well, my friend, does it make GOOD BUTTER and QUICK?

It does not only make good Butter, but about ONE FOURTH MORE, to a given amount of cream, under like circumstances of quality and temperature, and in about ONE HALF THE TIME required by the use of the "old dasher." Am, however, quite ready to confess that it will not make Butter as quick as the boasted "Five Minute" and other "lightning" Churns, nor would we have it so quick, for the very plain and simple reason that the extraordinarily rapid operation of such Churns yields as the result a mass of SOFT, LARDY, uninviting stuff, instead of those RICH, GRAINY, WAXY, FIRM and LIVELY QUALITIES which constitute REAL GOOD BUTTER.

Well, sir, I have one of the "old fashioned" Churns—an old family relic of several generations past, and do I understand you that nothing more is required than one of the "FINLEY DASHERS?"

Nothing else whatever to complete the SIMPLEST, CHEAPEST, and MOST SATISFACTORY CHURNING APPARATUS that the world has yet produced.

Well, friend, once more—excuse me, sir—right well pleased, but a little suspicious. Can't help it. Are you sure this is not one of the Yankee humbugs—one of the "Machine Nutmegs," or one of the "Hub of the Universe Hams" sort of tricks; such hams that would, to look upon, bring a "broad guage" grin to the phiz of the most fastidious epicure,—but with somewhat of a change in the "programme and scenery" when casting a sly peep at the cook after many fruitless efforts to slice a broil or two. Ugh! such looks and such "tonguing" as all understand who have been "thusly done for."

Methinks I discover a mutual sympathy, a similarity of experience and a similar determination to avoid all humbugs, especially with the "Yankee" prefix. My friend, "FINLEY'S DASHER" IS NO HUMBUG—not a bit of it, sir. 'Tis a "home invention," and will upon its own true merits, win its way into every household in the land, North and South. The Dasher is open to competition, and for "common sense," every day practical use and household economy, we say to Yankee or anybody else, BEAT IT IF YOU CAN.

Principal Depot for the Southern States for FINLEY'S CHURN DASHER, at the popular China Hall of EASTLAND, LLOYD & GILBERT, No. 321 Main street, Memphis, Tenn., and for sale by agents everywhere.

Retail Price, $4 00 Each, and Invariably Cash.

J. A. CAMERON & CO.,
No. 321 Main Street, Memphis, Tenn.,
AGENTS FOR THE UNITED STATES.

Agents Wanted, Everywhere, FOR "FINLEY'S CHURN-DASHER."

The FINLEY CHURN DASHER combines so fully the requisite qualities of simplicity, economy and practical utility, as to place it at the head of all other implements for similar purposes, and cannot fail to recommend itself most forcibly to the common sense and good judgment of housekeepers everywhere, and to be regarded as one of the indispensable household articles, and more especially so with the people of the Southern States, who now feel so greatly the need of time, money and labor-saving inventions.

Remember that the retail price has been fixed at FOUR DOLLARS each, everywhere; and that the proprietor intends to hold and exercise the exclusive right to the manufacture and sale of the Dasher for the whole United States, and cannot therefore be obtained through any other than authorized agencies.

Remember that the wholesale price to Agents has been fixed at a figure to insure a large profit to such agents as may handle it with industry and tact, and that such agents can, with a cash capital of one hundred to one thousand dollars, make more money, in less time, with less trouble and with less risk than many others all around you with thousands of capital invested in other pursuits.

Remember, that active, stirring, energetic men, who are willing to "pull off coat and roll up sleeves," CAN, with a small capital, realize one hundred per cent. profit at every thirty to sixty days—inducement enough, certainly; and we are prepared to offer just such to the right sort of men. Understand distinctly, however, that no such promises are made to "lazy men," for they can't do it. Away, then, with complaints of "hard times," "no employment," "no situations." Come and get employment and good pay—employment for thousands—employment both pleasant and highly remunerative. The field of operation is as wide as the whole country—choose your own ground—States, Counties, Cities, Towns and the Rural Districts—North, South, East and West—all lie before you. Can visit them on foot and on horseback, by wagon, railroad and steamboat, and IT WILL PAY YOU WELL TO DO IT, for wherever you may go with the "Dasher," you will find ready customers, and you will soon laugh at the "lazy loafer" who creeps around all day long crying "hard times and worse coming." Young men, "accept the situation" to make your own living and by your own individual efforts, and here is a good opportunity of doing so. Throw overboard "false pride," "politics," "fashion," "2:40 teams," "golden dreams" and "downy ease," and take hold of this work with a vim; "drive it" ahead, and soon the empty purse will be full—running over—and friends will spring up by the legion.

Remember that in addition to the large profits that there are TWO PRIZES at stake, and we want you to get one or both of them: TWO HUNDRED and FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS.

Remember to call and see us at once or write for particulars, with stamp for answer.

TEN YEARS' CREDIT!

56 Suburban Lots

NEAR MEMPHIS,

At Public Sale,

On 10 Years' Time.

I PROPOSE to sell at Public Sale, to the Highest bidder

On Thursday, 14th November, 1867,

About 300 acres Field and Forrest Land, on my Homestead Tract, situated three miles east of Memphis, at the head of Union avenue, and lying between Central avenue and the Old State Line road. The most popular street pavements being now in process of construction in Memphis, good turnpikes or street railways on the roads leading from the city directly through this property, must soon follow, thereby affording the most reasonable probability of its great and rapid enhancement of value.

In stating the advantages of this property I would specially refer to the HEALTH of the locality as having been always considered equal if not superior to that of any portion of the city environs; while the high character of the neighborhood, and the provision made for Church and School Privileges combine to render it one of the most desirable points for a suburban residence which the vicinity of Memphis affords.

The TITLE to this property has been vested in my father and myself for thirty years without interruption, and is free from any incumbrance.

PLANS of the Property may be had at the Office of the Auctioneers. The Avenues are Opened and the Lots Numbered, so as to be Examined at any time before the Sale.

Being Determined to Sell I shall offer the following liberal

TERMS: One-tenth Cash, the balance in Ten Annual Instalments, with interest from date. Warranty Deeds given, and Trust Deeds taken, waiving redemption. These terms will make it very easy for any one to secure a pleasant Home, which must constantly increase in value and comfort, as the growth of Memphis continues.

WANTS.

WANTED—THE PATENT

AURORA OIL.

We want men everywhere to study their own INTEREST. The right to manufacture and sell the Patent Aurora Oil in a single county will make more money to the purchaser in three months than the largest farm in your State will make in a whole year. The Aurora Oil actually costs less than one-half the price of Coal Oil, and the illuminating power of the Aurora Oil is as much superior to the Coal Oil as the Coal Oil is to a tallow candle, and is NO MORE explosive than a tallow candle. Any Lamp that will burn Coal Oil will burn the Aurora Oil. It does not smoke the chimney it does not smell—it will not grease or stain the finest linen—not even white cloth. The material for its manufacture is inexhaustible. One man can make seventy-five barrels per day. No machinery required. We will pay your fare to and from the city of Memphis and bills while here, if we cannot prove all, and even more, than we have stated. A single county is a small fortune to the man of enterprise, and the right to a State is untold worth. For further information, call on or address

THE eminent and distinguished Doctor, Sir James Clark, Physician to Queen Victoria, and most learned and distinguished men of this age, in his treatise on Consumption, says: That Pulmonary Consumption can be cured, admits no longer of a doubt, and all eminent writers on pathological anatomy, at this present time agree that consumption can be cured, if proper remedies are used in time; and testimony the most convincing, clearly proves that this disease must not be trifled with by using all kinds of patent medicines and quack nostrums, but the only safe and certain cure now in use throughout the South is known as "Dr. Williams' Pulmonic Balsam of Wild Cherry and Wood Naptha," which has stood the test of more than twenty years' trial, during which time it has given the most convincing proof of its great efficacy in having arrested this most subtle and treacherous disease with thousands who are living witnesses to-day to testify to the truth of what we here state. And to the incredulous who are suffering with any pulmonary disease, no matter of how long standing, we ask you to try this medicine once, and be convinced for yourself.

The accused were arrested and brought before the Justice, who committed them to jail, they refusing bonds. They will come up for a hearing to-day. In the meanwhile Manning lies in a very dangerous condition.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER.—The really fine drama of Esmeralda was produced at the above theater last night with Miss Melville as "Esmeralda," a part she enacted with much credit. She was well supported by the company. Her singing was repeatedly encored as it justly deserved to be. The afterpeice of Jenny Lind, as usual, was well rendered, and did not fail to please. To-night we are to have Who Killed Cock Robin and Poca hon tas, in which Miss Melville appears in two of her greatest characters. The house should be filled.

THE following was inadvertently omitted from our issue of yesterday:

A Card.—We return our sincere thanks to Messrs. Randall, Kehoe and their assistants of the Fire Department, for their untiring efforts to subdue the flames that destroyed the Bradley block. Their daring deserves the highest praise. We feel truly grateful to Capt. Black and Mr. White, of Black, Camron & Co., the Messrs. Elliott, Mr. Benham, and the many other friends that worked so hard to save our property. Thank you all kindly.
R P. & MARTIN WALT.
Sunday, October 27, 1867.

SECURE YOURSELVLES.—In the midst of life we are in death. The every day experience of our lives but goes to prove the correctness of this saying. Knowing that life is of but short duration, at best, it is a duty that all owe to their families or surviving relatives, to provide for them in case of their demise. It costs but a small amount, and untold good is often received by a small outlay. Our old friend, McClure, who has an office at 16 Jefferson street, represents one of the best companies in the Union, and will insure on the most advantageous terms. Drop in and see him.

ATTEMPTED INCENDIARISM.—At an early hour yesterday morning an attempt was made to set on fire one of the buildings known as Hughes' Row, on Madison street near Third. One of the inmates who was up waiting on a sick member of his family, heard an unusual noise, and going back found that all had been made ready to apply the torch. Had the scheme of incendiarism not been frustrated, doubtless, there would not only have been a heavy loss of property, but, perhaps, of human life. We are informed that this is not the first time an attempt of the like kind has been made at the same place recently.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

At a special communication of Leila Scott Lodge No. 289, held in the Hall of South Memphis Lodge No. 118, on Sunday evening, October 27th, A. D., 1867, A. L., 5867, a committee was appointed to draft appropriate resolutions on the death of Brother D. A. Williamson, Senior Warden of this Lodge, the following were submitted:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Supreme Grand Master to take from our midst our late Senior Warden and much esteemed Brother, D. A. Williamson; and although we feel that it is impossible to embody in a set of resolutions, the sorrow his death has occusioned to the members of this Lodge, yet we offer this tribute to the memory of one whose exemplary conduct and noble graces of character made his life worthy our emulation;

Resolved, That by his death the Lodge has lost one of its brightest and most zealous members, who, only in the twenty-fifth year of his age, and in his fourth Masonic year, by the faithful performance of every duty as a brother and a man, by his urbane manners, unfeigned purity, and firm but generous disposition, had won, not only admiration and honor from the brethren. but from all with whom he came in contact, "a good name, better than riches."

Resolved, That while we mourn his loss, cut down in the vigor and strength of manhood, and with the prospects of a brilliant and useful career before him, yet we bow in humble submission to the sovereign will of Him who cannot err, and with whom are the issues of life and death. "Is there not an appointed time for man upon earth? Yes, verily, his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee; thou hast appointed his bounds, that he cannot pass." We believe the Divine purpose is always wise and full of mercy, and when the summons which he has answered shall reach us, we hope by a firm reliance in the merits of the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, to meet him in the Grand Lodge above, where the Supreme Grand Master of the Universe presides, and where all work is perfect.

Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with his aged father and relatives, and that we tender them our heartfelt condolence, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to his family, spread upon the minutes of this Lodge, and published in the Memphis APPEAL, and that we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

H. F. WOODARD,
C. CURTIS, Com.
W. B. RICHARDET,

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The Chamber of Commerce met yesterday at three p.m., pursuant to adjournment—the President, T. A. Nelson, in the chair, and Col. John Heart secretary. The committee appointed on Monday to confer with the Collector and Assessor of Internal Revenue in reference to the collection of the cotton tax, submitted, through their chairman, Henderson Owen, Esq., the following report:

The committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to take into consideration the recent change in the mode of collecting the cotton tax, and to confer with the Collector and Assessor of Internal Revenue as to what arrangement can be made to obviate anticipated inconveniences and difficulties, met at the office of Mr. Thomas H. Allen, at 9 o'clock this morning. Present—Messrs. Henderson Owen, Chairman; Thos. H. Allen, S. M. Gates, W. B. Galbreath and Napoleon Hill, and also Messrs. Saunders, Collector, and Cooper, Assessor of Internal Revenue.

After a very full and free interchange of opinions between the committee and the officers of the revenue, during which the latter manifested every disposition to do all in their power to facilitate the operations of the trade—the result of the conference may be summed up as follows: There will be no objection to the factors paying the tax on cotton; there will be no objection to buyers refusing to buy cotton on which the tax is not paid; buyers must see that cotton is properly tagged, and that the tags correspond in letters and numbers with the permits; permits to be granted for any quantities of cotton upon application. From the emphasis with which the Assessor remarked that when the tags did not conform in all respects to the permits, the cotton was liable to seizure, the committee would suggest the propriety of having the tags protected until the cotton reached its destination.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

On motion, the report was received and adopted. Mr. Owen was then called to the chair, when Mr. T. A. Nelson offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to make such communication to the Secretary of the Treasury and the Commissioner of Internal Revenue as they may think necessary to relieve the merchants and planters from the many difficulties by which they are now surrounded, in paying tax on and shipping cotton, which is seriously clogging mercantile operations, and unless modified will increase the oppressions and injuriously affect the prospects of our already overburdened interest.

Adopted.

The President resumed the chair. The following gentlemen were appointed as the committee on Mr. Nelson's resolutions: Thos. H. Allen, A. T. Lacey, S. M. Gates, Sam'l Mosby, A. P. Burditt. On motion the President was added and made chairman of the committee. Thereupon the Chamber adjourned.

Meeting of the Memphis Bar.

At a meeting of the Memphis Bar, in respect to the memories of two of its members, recently deceased, M. R. Hill and D. Nelton, H. G. Smith was called to the chair, and E. C. McDowell made secretary. Committees were appointed to draft resolutions paying a tribute of respect to the memories of our deceased brethren. The meeting then adjourned until October 29, 1867, when the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

The members of the Bar of the city of Memphis have heard, with feelings of deepest regret of the death of their late associate and brother, M. R. Hill, Esq. Col. Hill had been a resident of this city for but two years, yet he had resided for more than a quarter of a century in West Tennessee, and had attained so high and eminent a position as a lawyer, that his name and reputation were as well known and familiar when he came amongst us as though he had resided with us for years. Possessed of extraordinary zeal and industry in the practice of his profession; ambitious to earn the reputation of an able and learned lawyer. At the time of his death, Col. Hill had obtained a position which placed him in the front rank of the bar of this State, and has left behind no more eloquent and earnest advocate or wiser counselor. As a citizen he was public spirited—always exerting himself to perform his duty in all respects to his fellow-men; honest and conscientious, he had the respect and confidence of all who knew him. In the social relations of life he bore himself so modestly and so kindly, that it may be truly said of him, "none knew him but to love him." In the prime of his manhood, in the full vigor of his intellect, and in the midst of his usefulness, he has been called away from us by the inexorable decree of an all-wise Providence, and we are left to mourn over his untimely death; therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the death of M. R. Hill the Bar of West Tennessee has been deprived of one of its brightest and most gifted members, and the Bar of the city of Memphis of one of its proudest ornaments, and the community at large of a most useful an worthy citizen.

Resolved, That we tender our most heartfelt condolence to his bereaved and stricken family in this the hour of their deepest affliction.

Resolved, That in token of our regard for his memory, we will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That the secretary of this meeting forward a copy of these resolutions to the family of our deceased brother.

Resolved, That the city papers be requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

Resolved, That the chairman of this meeting appoint one member of the Bar to present these resolutions to each of the different Courts of this city, the Supreme Court of this State, and the Circuit Court of the United States, with a request that they be entered upon the minutes of their respective courts.

WHEREAS, Our Brother, Daniel Nolton, has been taken from our midst to return no more, therefore be it

Resolved, That by his death we have lost a genial companion and a kind friend.

Resolved, That while we complain not of the acts of Him whose will was fulfilled in our brother's decease, it is our heartfelt regret that he was not permitted longer to sojourn with us, to be for us a model and an example as a gentleman and a lawyer.

Resolved, That to his family, friends, and more particularly to his heart broken widow, we tender our sympathies, and wishes in this their hour of sorrow; and

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the courts of this city, and be furnished to the widow of the deceased.

The following members of the bar were appointed to present the resolutions in respect to the memory of M. R. Hill, to the different courts: J. B. Heiskell, Chancery Court; J. E. R. Ray, Law Court; George Gantt, Criminal Court; John F. Sale, Municipal Court; L. D. McKissick, Shelby Circuit Court.

The following members of the bar were appointed to present to the different courts the resolutions in respect to the memory of D. Nolton: George E. Stahl, Chancery Court; S. P. Rose, Criminal Court; H. C. Young, Law Court; L. L. Anderson, Municipal Court. The meeting then adjourned.

H. S. SMITH, Chairman.
E. C. McDOWELL, Secretary.

NOT SO.—A report was current on the streets yesterday morning that Henry T. Hulbert, Esq., Chairman of the Board of Aldermen, had died. The Municipal Court adjourned in consequence. The report, however, proved to be untrue. We are glad to say that Mr. Hulbert is convalescent, and will be ready to bring down the gavel upon (out of order) Aldermen when required.

DEATH OF COL. SMITH LEWIS.—It is our painful duty to record the death of Col. Smith Lewis, General United States Inspector for the Eighth District of Tennessee, which sad event occurred at his residence, in this city, at four o'clock Tuesday morning. He fell a victim to the prevailing epidemic. Col. Lewis was one of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens. He was a good and a true man in the fullest acceptance of the word. Kind, generous, brave and noble, he embodied all the good elements that constitute a good man. His death is a great loss to our community; and its announcement, wherever it shall go among his innumerable host of friends throughout the country, will cause a pang of the deepest sorrow and regret. Peace to his noble memory.

THE COURTS.

LAW COURT—Judge J. D. Pierce, presiding.—The June term opened on yesterday pursuant to adjournment. The committee appointed on Monday to report as to the proper manner of disposing of the unsigned minutes of this term, reported through the Chairman, Judge A. Wright, that it was the opinion of the committee that Judge Pierce had authority to sign the same. Several leading members of the bar concurred in the opinion. Judge Pierce, adjourned the June term to Tuesday, November 5th, 1867. The following order was entered: "It is ordered by the Court that all parties intending to take appeals or file bills of exceptions as to the June term, 1867, do so immediately and file the same with the clerk."

MUNICIPAL COURT—Adjourned on yesterday over to next Tuesday, November 5, 1867.

INQUEST.—The County Coroner, Wm. B. Cotton, Esq., held an inquest yesterday morning on the body of James E. Johnson, who was shot near the Fair grounds on Sunday night by Jerry Woods. Johnson died on Monday night. The Coroner's Jury, by their foreman, Officer W. L. Porter, after a careful investigation, rendered a verdict finding "that the deceased came to his death from a pistol shot wound fired by the hands of one Jerry Woods." The Coroner immediately issued his warrant, when Woods was placed in the hands of the Sheriff, to be held. He will probably come before Mr. Justice Miller for examination on Friday. The remains were taken to Raleigh for interment at his own request, three of his children being buried there.

One Thing is Certain,

THAT however widely great men may differ, there is a large majority of Doctors, Lawyers and Divines throughout the South who do agree that Dr. Williams' Pulmonic Balsam of Wild Cherry and Wood Naptha is the only certain cure for Pneumonia, Asthma, Bronchitis, Diptheria, Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats, Palpitation of the Heart, Loss of Strength, Whooping Cough, Catarrh, Pleurisy, Difficult Breathing, and all diseases of the Chest and Lungs, and a certain and sure cure for Consumption in its early stages. That it cures all of the above enumerated diseases, is a fact beyond controversy, as there are thousands of living witnesses to-day ready to testify, who have been cured by this great discovery. Hear what some of our most eminent physicians of the South say: The distinguished Dr. Boon, of Macon, Ga., says that "In every case he has found this preparation a safe and prompt remedy for all pulmonary affections, and takes pleasure in recommending it as a reliable anodine, expectorant, etc."

Dr. Tennant, of Marietta, Ga., a physician of deservedly high reputation as an able and experienced practitioner of medicine, entertains and expresses the same opinion, and recommends it extensively in his practice.

Dr. P. M. Cohen, of Charleston, S. C., a gentleman of well known reputation, and a wholesale dealer and importer of drugs and medicines, recommends it in the highest terms, and uses it, exclusive of all other remedies in his family, with the most satisfactory results.

And we might add even thousands of certificates of like recommendations of this medicine, all of which would only consume time in reading for no purpose, as this great medicine is too well known throughout the South, where it has been in use for the last twenty-two years, to need any further recommendation than this—that all who have used it once are not satisfied to be without it; and so great has been the demand, that it has been only recently that we have been able to make such arrangements for its manufacture as will enable us to supply the constant demands which we are daily in receipt of from leading druggists and other dealers throughout the South.

Having established our Labratory at the well known wholesale drug house of J. B. Wasson & Co., of this city, we are now prepared to fill all orders without delay, which shall be promptly met, (to the trade only), and must be addressed to J. B. WASSON & CO.,

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

Early risers reported a white frost this morning, but the day was warm. Capt. McPheeters, of the Paragon, reports six feet at Phillip's and five feet at Point Pleasant, the worst place from here to St. Louis. We have no late news from the Arkansas or White rivers, but are safe in saying that no improvement has taken place in those streams since our last. At Louisville and Cincinnati the Ohio is indulging in one of its mysterious but delicate swells, which will, we fear, not do much towards improving that river.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ROWENA SUNK.—Our readers will regret to learn that the Memphis and White river packet Rowena, commanded by Capt. John B. Davis, struck a snag when opposite Helena on Monday evening and sunk in eight feet water. No lives were lost. By a dispatch from Capt. Davis to her agents, Messrs. Levy & Miller, we learn that she cannot be raised, and will, therefore, prove a total loss with the exception of such of her upper works as can be taken off. The Rowena was about five years old. She was built at Cincinnati originally, we believe, for a Memphis and Cincinnati packet. Capt. Davis purchased her this season for the White River Packet Company and paid for her $20,000, but had her repaired at a large expense, and at the time she met with her death was in as good condition as when she first was launched. She was valued at about $35,000, and was insured in Cincinnati offices for $20,000. She had on board a cargo of cotton, which amounted to not less we learn than 500 bales. Our whole community sympathize with Capt. Davis in the loss of his steamer. He will be here to-day on the Ozark, and will immediately secure another packet to replace the Rowena.

We have more than once referred to the advantages possessed by our city in the way of repairing steamers over places higher up the river. No better evidence of our ability to do work of this kind is wanted than a visit to the steamer Myrtie, now lying at our landing. Capt. Wm. Hardwick, her owner, has had her put in repair under his own eye, and the job, taken as a whole, is a credit to our city. Twenty-eight new floor timbers have been placed in her, and a sister kelson has been run through her from stem to stern. Twenty-four new outriggers have been added to her, and she has been keyed between the knuckle and upper clamps with keys ten feet long—five on each side. Every piece of unsound timber has been removed and replaced with new. Her cabin has been extended aft, and six large and comfortable double staterooms have been added to her ladies' cabin, while all her staterooms in the forward cabin have been enlarged. Capt. Hardwick has purchased an entire new outfit for his packet in this city, and her bedding, linen and pantryware will all be of the very best. The Myrtie was inspected yesterday, and passed A No. 1. The finishing touches are now being added to her cabin, and she will depart for Vicksburg and all points on the Yazoo river on Saturday next, carrying the trip of the Dan Able and the United States mail. Billy Fields and Stack Lee will be found upon the landing to-day to receive freight for the Myrtie.

The Ozark, of which Capt. John J. Edson is master, is the regular United States mail packet, leaving for all points on White river to-morrow. The Ozark makes close connection at Devall's Bluff with the train for Little Rock. Mr. Jim. McDonald is the presiding genius of the office and Tom. Halliburton is his second.

Jerry Lewis, the well known dealer in steamboat supplies, who was burned out at the big fire on Saturday night last, has, Phœnix like, emerged from the ruins of his old stand and is again flourishing between Adams and Washington streets, or about one square above his former place. He will as usual furnish the best in the market to his customers.

We learn that the J. S. McCune was aground at Phillip's when the Paragon passed down. The Abeona, with two barges, was also aground at Tiptonville.

A bill has passed our Legislature which allows no distinction of color by common carriers. That is, a conductor who don't permit a buck negro to ride in a ladies' car, or a steamboat which don't furnish a wench with the bridal chamber in the ladies' cabin, shall be fined not less than $50 or more than $100. The negro may now exclaim: "Save me from my friends!"

The Peoria City passed up yesterday. We placed her among the departures on Sunday last, being misled by a dispatch of her captain saying he would be here positively on Saturday evening. Sich is life—on the river.

The Pilgrim did not get away last evening, but will positively leave at 5 p.m. to-day for Pine Bluff and way points. Capt. Tom. Berry is master, and our young friend Jimmy Thompson is chief clerk.

The Marble City, Capt. Conway, will be in port to-night and leave to-morrow evening for St. Louis.

The Henry Ames, Capt. Frank Hicks, will back out at 5 p.m. to-day for New Orleans and way ladnings. She is a splendid packet, and will no doubt have a fine trip. Mr. Crawford is chief clerk, and Billy Page, a well known Memphian, is his associate.

The fine low water steamer Norman, Capt. Scott, will back out to-day at 5 p.m. for all points on White river. Mr. Twomey is in the office, and travelers as well as shippers will find him an agreeable gentleman.

The Rose Hambleton, with Capt. Tom. Newall on the roof, will try her luck in the White river trade once more. She leaves to day at 5 p.m. for all points to Jacksonport. Harry Sweet and Andy Granger are clerks.

The M. S. Mepham, Capt. McDonald, leaves for New Orleans on Thursday at 5 p.m.

Capt. Thomas H. Taylor, an old and esteemed steamboatman, died in St. Louis on the 26th inst. aged sixty-four years.

In the case of Father Bachman, who sued for damages received while a passenger on the Gen. Lytle at the time of the explosion, the jury were unable to agree upon a verdict, and were discharged Saturday.

Norman Loughlin, pilot of the Fanny Scott, together with the engineer and watchman of the same steamer, at St. Louis, were arrested for beating a negro, who is not expected to live.

The Secretary of War was authorized by Congress, at the last session, to build and operate two dredgeboats for the purpose of deepening and keeping open the channel of one or more of the passes at the mouth of the Mississippi river. Under this authority the Secretary has entered into a contract with a Boston firm for the construction of one of these vessels. It is to be 160 feet long, with a propeller at each end, one of which is to be driven by two engines and the other by one.

IN entering upon another commercial year, with the experience of the past, fraught with the many vicissitudes incident to a changed system of agriculture, and for which most of our planters were little prepared, resulting in heavy loss to planter and merchant, as an experiment tried, we shall adopt a rigid cash system in our business—taking no risk, and making our sales prompt upon receipt of consignments, remitting proceeds with as little delay as possible; but in all cases obeying instructions of shippers, and using our best endeavors to promote the interest of our patrons.

Our arrangements for furnishing Supplies, Bagging, Rope, Gunnies, Groceries and Provisions are such, that we promise to furnish them at our lowest market price, and make it as much, or more, to your interest to order through us, than to purchase in person.

Hoping to receive your patronage and influence, we are, respectfully,

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, October 28, 1867.

Money during the week has gradually been growing easier. Not less than $850,000 has been paid out for cotton in that time. Our banks are prepared to take all cotton bills presented, and from henceforth we look for no trouble in moving our staple to market. Currency comes in from St. Louis and the east daily. The buying rates of exchange remain firm at ½ off, and selling at par to ¼ premium. The demand is light.

The gold premium is declining gradually. The week opened with the premium in New York at 143⅛. To-day the New York market opened at 142 and closed at 142. The transactions grow smaller daily, and dealers are making light shipments. 140@140½ are the buying rates; selling at 142@142½.

Silver is offered occasionally, but so seldom as to lose all interest to brokers, who buy at 130@132.

City scrip is dull at 40c buying, with very light counter demand; selling at 41@42c.

County warrants are not in demand and some brokers are not buying. The nominal buying rate is 70c; selling at 75@80c.

There is more call for police scrip to-day, and brokers buy small pieces at 70@75c; selling at 75@80.

The cotton market for the week has been a moderately active one. It opened with a decline of ½c in New York, but revived again upon the receipt of advices from Liverpool, which quoted an advance in that market on Friday of ⅛d. On Saturday our market was firm at 17½@18c for middling, but owing to the promulgation of an order from the revenue officer at this point, relative to collecting the tax in future from the shipper instead of the seller, as heretofore, there has been little done since. By reference to our local columns it will be seen that the matter has been adjusted. The New York market declined ½c on Monday, and our market also declined from 17½18c to 17½c for middling. The eastern dispatch of this morning quoted that market dull, with prices unchanged, and the closing dispatch announced a quiet but steady market, with uplands at 19½@20c. Our market to-day was quiet, with smaller offerings than usual. Holders in the morning were asking 17½c for middling which was somewhat above the views of buyers; but before the close they were coming up to that figure in nearly every instance. The receipts for the week amounted to 5934 bales; exports, 5341 bales. The market closed firm with an upward tendency.

Memphis Wholesale Dry Goods Market

The dry goods trade of our city has suffered more, perhaps, than any other branch of business during the past two or three weeks. Merchants from the interior have so far been afraid not only to visit us, but to order goods, lest they should be impregnated with the fever. This opinion is erroneous, and should not be entertained. The stock now on hand is fresh, and has come from ports where the fever is unknown, and a person of ordinary intellect should know that the sickness which has prevailed for some days has not been of so general a character as to cause alarm or uneasiness of this nature. Prices are tending downward, and since our last it will be seen there has been a liberal reduction made on all classes of goods.

The demand during the week has been light, and although the coming crop does not look any more favorable than at our last for a good yield, prices remain unchanged.

Wholesale Market.

Business for the past commercial week, although not active, has been more favorable than could be expected under the circumstances that surround us. There is very little of a speculative spirit abroad, and our people are devoting their attention to legitimate trade. An effort is being made by some of our prominent houses to inaugurate a cash system among dealers instead of the present method of permitting bills to run until the 1st of each month. It will no doubt prove more satisfactory than the old way, and they should close up their accounts weekly at least. The corn market has never been so bare as at present, and the demand for a few days has been active. Orders have been on the market for shipment which can't be filled. The only stock on hand is held by retail dealers. Meat has been dull during the week. Hay scarce and firm. Bran has also been scarce and firm. Oats are firm, with light supply. Meats are weaker than last week. Produce of all kinds, owing to fair receipts, has declined.

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL

AFTER THE BATH.

A FANCY PICTURE—REVISED AND COMPLETED.

Her skin is moist and cold, and pink,
But warm and red the lips I press,
And all her beauty seems to shrink
Compacter in her clinging dress;
While o'er her shoulders to the hip,
O'er swelling bust and far down,
In trailing gold the tresses drip
Which form at night her braided crown.

No more her eyes in languor swim;
But flash with keen, coquettish strife,
And every pulse in every limb
Seems kindling into radiant life;
Her cheek hath caught a ruddier stain,
And her small feet in sand that sink
Are marble-white, with many a vein
Down to the almond-nails of pink.

Her teeth are white as the shining surf,
Her eyes are blue as the bay in calm,
And her breath to the new-mown clover turf
Is a rival in its fragrant balm;
O, happy sea that has held her form
O, happy sands by her white feet pressed—
With her beauty the whole bright scene is warm,
Her beauty of jesture, and face, and breast.

Proudly she stands in her scarlet dress,
And my eyes give a quiver and then grow dim
As I gaze on her infinite loveliness
Of delicate color and rounded limb;
And the bright blue bay with its flitting sails,
And the silver sand, and the rocks of brown,
And the woods that are dark on the distant hills,
And the broad green meadows that slope adown—

All seem but a frame for my lady bright,
A frame not worthy her matchless grace—
Her lips of red, and her eyes of light,
And the wonderful charm of her winsome face;
O, here let me lie and die at her feet,
Let my soul in its sighs for her pass away—
For my life hath its climax, and death were sweet
With her eyes gazing down on me here to-day!

My senses swoon into blissful trance
As her small, cool fingers touch my palm,
And through all of my veins the currents dance
As I feel on my cheek her breath of balm;
All the springs of my life are in her control,
For though features more perfect I know full well—
In rich, womanly beauty of body and soul
There are none to compare with my seaside belle.

The brown rocks glow as she bounds along
And the black reeds thrill in the silver spray,
And the birds in the blue sing a gladder song
As my lady walks by the shining bay!
The waves that have shrined her radiant form
Must be humanized by the saintly touch,
And will spare for her sake in the next great storm
Some proud ship from their clutch.
